3. Misuse of the servicemark CEC and the associated Church name, The Continuing Episcopal Church, has been an ongoing problem since about June, 1998. On or about June, 1998 I began complaining to internet service providers, who hosted Tony Begonia's web site as well as to internet service providers hosting Griffith's web site. On at least two occasions different internet service providers terminated service for Tony Begonja's web site as a direct result of complaints. On at least two occasions other different internet service providers terminated service for Griffith's web site as a direct result of complaints.

4. On the first of those complained about occasions the Defendant Griffith and the Defendant Tony Begonja were infringing the service mark CEC and the service mark THEOCACNA together with the associated Church names. On the latter of those complained about occasions both of the Defendants were infringing the aforesaid service marks and additionally copyrighted photographs. These infringed service marks and copyrights are those shown in Exhibits A and B of the Amended Complaint.

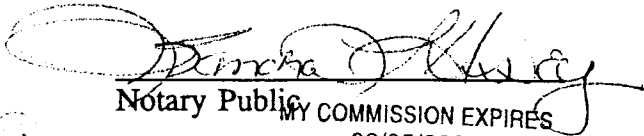

5. It is most important to the reputation of the Plaintiff Churches that their activities and printed publications clearly be distinguished from the acts and published material on the websites of the individual Defendants. The Defendant Montgomery Griffith was recently charged with the rape of a 20 year old male. It is my understanding that Montgomery

Griffith is at large on $50,000 bail. Montgomery Griffith was also criminally convicted and remains on probation for assault, trespass and disturbance. I believe that any association with this man through his misleading and wrongful representations leads to irreparable damage to our Church's reputation and integrity.

6. The website of Tony Begonja promotes same gender marriages. Tony Begonja advertises on the internet to perform these same gender marriages. His website is cross referenced and indexed so that it will appear as a result of searches for keywords such as "gay friendly" performed on search engines. I have received e-mail from Kristopher Dowling, the leader of a Celtic church group, who advised that he had requested that his name be removed from the same website of the Defendant Tony Begonja. His request was not honored by Tony Begonja, and he believed that Tony Begonja's website alone was the cause of his name being included on homosexual mailing lists. Accordingly, it is important to the Plaintiff Churches not to be associated, and to be distanced from the website of Tony Begonja.

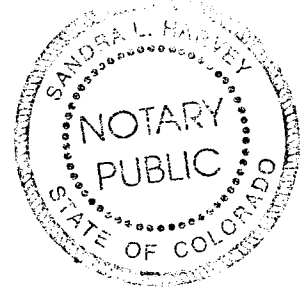

7. I can personally attest that the Exhibits A and B contain true copies of the registered trademarks and copyrights owned by CEC.
